Dear Dr. Hormann:

Secretary Shalala has sent your letter of October 10 to me to reply directly to you since the Agency for Health Care Policy and Research is the lead agency for health services research in the United States. We realize the value of information systems and sponsor research in that area.

I am referring you to J. Michael Fitzmaurice, Ph.D., Director, Office of Science and Data Development. He and his staff would be delighted to accommodate a visit by you to further conversations about your ideas and our activities in this area when you visit the United States. To make further arrangements, please contact Dr. Fitzmaurice at:

Dear Mr. Hormann:

I am responding to your February 22, 1995, facsimile, in which you proposed a meeting to discuss differences in management concepts and structures, as well as the influence of Electronic Data Processing (EDP) in Germany and in the United States.

My staff will be glad to meet with you on April 11, 1995, at 10:00 a.m. The meeting will be held in the Security Office Park (SOP) building located at 7008 Security Boulevard. As requested, we will provide you with an overhead projector for your presentation. For your convenience, we are enclosing a map showing where the SOP building is located in relation to the Baltimore Beltway (Interstate Highway 695).

Should you or members of your staff have any questions or need further directions to the site of the meeting, please call me on (410) 597-5110 or Joseph Hladky on (410) 597-3640.

Sincerely,

Regina McPhillips, Dr.P.H.
Director
Bureau of Data Management and Strategy
